The ninth DLC for PAYDAY 2, “Hotline Miami”, will launch on Steam on the 30th of September

Starbreeze AB, one of Sweden's leading independent game developers, today announce that the ninth DLC pack for PAYDAY 2, titled “Hotline Miami”, will be launched on Steam September 30th. The DLC pack will be available for purchase at $ 6.99 / € 6.99 on PC through Steam and other digital distribution channels. The DLC features:

- A two-day heist inspired by the critically acclaimed game Hotline Miami
- Eight new masks – four which you get if you own the DLC, the other four if you own the game Hotline Miami on Steam
- Three new submachine guns including the classic Uzi
- Five new melee weapons including the mysterious 50 Blessings briefcase and a fire axe

“This DLC marks our third collaboration with another studio. The first was with Valve where we made the No Mercy heist for PAYDAY: The Heist and the GO Bank heist for PAYDAY 2. The second collaboration was together with Skybound’s The Walking Dead and the baseball bat Lucille which was released during the summer. This time, we’re collaborating with Dennaton Games, celebrated indie developers of Hotline Miami. A completely new two-day heist has been made by us, taking inspiration from the Hotline Miami universe. The addition of masks, submachine guns and melee weapons well known among Hotline Miami fans will surely entice our PAYDAY community to ask themselves ‘Do you like hurting other people?’”, says Bo Andersson Klint, CEO, Starbreeze AB.
